

Effective Middle Leadership

National Teaching School designated by

National College for Teaching & Leadership

*A practical two day course for any middle leader wishing to improve their skills and gain fresh insights into their role, with trainers
Gill Howard & Jackie Shanks*

Day 1

What makes an effective middle leader?

17th May 2019
9.30am – 2.30pm

*Yewstock School, Honeymead Lane,
Sturminster Newton DT10 1EW*

Day 1 will cover:

- Self Reflection
- Managing time
- Trust and delegation
- Effective meetings
- Monitoring

Day 2

Relationship & communication skills

27th June 2019
9.30am – 2.30pm

Mountjoy School, Tunnel Road, Beaminster, Dorset, DT8 3HB

Day 2 will cover:

- Communicating your vision and non-negotiables
- Leading & developing a team
- Managing change
- Working with individuals
- Coaching & fierce conversations

Now in her third year as Deputy Head of Yewstock School, Gill Howard has previously worked in mainstream secondary in a variety of roles, including SENCO, specialist teacher and setting up a base for excluded students. She has worked across primary and secondary schools as an advisor for Dorset SENSS. Gill has a special interest in developing pedagogy and leadership as a focus for getting the best out of teams. Gill has recently delivered two NPQML accredited course with great success, to a mix of special school and mainstream colleagues.

Head of Mountjoy School, Jackie Shanks is a National Leader of Education who has experience across a wide range of educational settings, including two previous headships. Her expertise includes best practice supervision and management of change in organisations. She looks forward to working with you. Jackie has recently delivered two NPQML accredited courses with great success, to a mix of special school and mainstream colleagues.

Contact bookings@tadss.dorset.sch.uk for further info and to book your place.

£30 for one day, £45 for two-days
Bookings include lunch and refreshments
10% reduction for TADSS subscribers